

CALL FOR PAPERS

The 2024 Great Plains Economic and Business Conference presented by NEBA

The Nebraska Economics and Business Association (NEBA) invites proposals for paper presentations from faculty, business professionals, and graduate students at the Great Plains Economic and Business Annual Conference. The presentation of undergraduate student's upper-level papers is acceptable--if accompanied by their faculty member. New participants welcome!

This year's conference will be held on Friday, October 25, 2024. The theme of this year's conference is "Identifying and Seizing Upon Midwest Business and Labor Growth Opportunities." The conference will be held on the Bellevue University Campus in the John B. Muller Administrative Services Building (MASB), #14 on campus map, 812 Bruin Blvd, Bellevue, NE 68005.

While economic and business papers related to the theme are suggested, all proposals are welcome.*

Call for Faculty and Guest Papers

- ❖ Paper proposals by faculty and interested professionals should be submitted to Dr. John Tiner at neba@unomaha.edu by October 1, 2024.
- ❖ Proposals should include the name, title of proposal, and email at the top of the Word.doc and should be 150-200 words in length. Conference presentation time for those accepted to the conference is limited to 20 minutes.
- ❖ Preference on the program will be given to completed papers. Presentations at the conference are eligible for submission to the Economics & Business Journal: Inquiries & Perspectives c/o Dr. John Tiner. Call for Graduate and Undergraduate Papers

The Nebraska Economics and Business Association (NEBA) is inviting interested students to submit papers for possible presentation at the Great Plains Economic and Business Association Annual Conference and for journal consideration. Students who present in person are expected to attend the entire conference as part of professional development. The registration fee will be waived for student presenters.

ELIGIBILITY

- Entries must be written by undergraduate students or graduate students in a Master's program. Ph.D. candidates are not eligible for the student competition, but may submit as guest authors in the faculty sessions.
- The competition is open to currently enrolled students or those who were enrolled during the previous academic year. Only one paper may be submitted a year by a student (even as a co-author).
- Up to three student papers may be awarded a $200 prize.

REQUIREMENTS

- Proposals for paper presentation should be 150-200 words and must be submitted to the Student Paper Coordinator by October 1, 2024.
 - The paper cannot be more than 12 single-spaced, 8 1/2 x 11" pages including endnotes and bibliography. Further detailed instructions should be obtained from your department chairperson or faculty sponsor, or contact the coordinator below.
 - The topic may relate to any business or economic issue.
 - The student author must present the paper in person at the Great Plains Economics and Business Annual Conference.
 - The faculty sponsor needs to be present during the student presentation.
 - Twenty (20) minutes will be allowed for each person to present and answer questions.
- ❖ Current information is available on our website at: <https://nebeconandbus.org>
- ❖ Journal of Past Papers: <https://nebeconandbus.org/journal/home.htm>
